in a divine revelation of heaven after thirty nights in which god gave her visions of the depths of hell and the punishments of the lost mary k baxter was shown for ten nights the glories of heaven the home of redeemed souls included in this book are her depictions of heaven's gates, angels, music, worship, storehouses of blessings, joyful heavenly citizens, four living creatures, and brilliant throne of God. Mary also describes heaven's perfect order and purpose, what happens to children, and much more. These breathtaking glimpses of heaven interspersed with applicable Bible verses will turn your heart toward the beauty and joy that await every believer in Christ. In a divine revelation of hell, over a period of thirty nights, God gave Mary K. Baxter visions of hell and commissioned her to tell people still alive on earth to reject sin and evil and to choose life in Christ. Here is an account of the place and beings of hell contrasted with the glories of heaven. Follow Mary in her supernatural journey as she enters with Jesus into a gateway to hell and encounters the sights, sounds, and smells of that dark place of torment, including its evil spirits, cells, pits, jaws, and heart. Be an eyewitness to the various punishments of lost souls and hear their shocking stories. This book is a reminder that each of us needs to accept the miracle of salvation before it is too late and to intercede for those who do not yet know Christ. Time is running out.

to properly interpret the book of Revelation, we must have a thorough understanding of the New Covenant spiritual life. We must learn to emphasize the spiritual over the material, we must have a heavenly orientation as opposed to an earthly orientation to life, history, and our future.

the investigation centres on the role of the Spirit in Revelation, which the author considers is best defined as the Spirit of Prophecy. A survey of scholarship on the pneumatology of the Apocalypse is followed by a study of intertextual connections. The author's own religious context within Pentecostalism then informs a possible hermeneutic that is faithful to the ethos of the movement. Biblical and literary studies are situated within the context of a Pentecostal community as attention is paid to the prophecy concerning the temple and the witnesses in Rev 11. This key passage is shown to form the theological as well as the literary centre of the Spirit's role in Revelation.

the mystical keys to the book of revelation is about the author's miraculous transformation that was responsible for aligning her soul with the spirit of the living god as her journey progressed god and his angels taught laura the secrets to the book of revelation they revealed that this sacred scripture is not a book of doom and gloom but simply describes in symbolic language the stages of metamorphosis that will occur on the planet as the souls of humanity are aligned with the divine spirit laura's own metamorphosis led her into the arms of true love as she and her soul mate were united she reveals how the forces of the holy trinity become active in two souls as they become bonded by divine love laura has recorded her journey and the messages that the divine spirit imparted to her in the hopes that they will inspire others to search for truth and love in their own lives
